I find myself a precise, responsible, persistent, social and leader type person. In my opinion I learn quickly and I do not have issues with focusing or concentrating. Currently giving it my all to gain solid industrial experience and knowledge. I am thrilled about the opportunities and challenges that allow me to utilize my proficiency with logical thinking and leverage my existing skills. I constantly develop and update my english knowledge. In the future I plan to do an expert level of english language exam. Interested in and open for IT jobs.
